

A rhyme for Christmas

A rhyme for Christmas a love for life
A dedication for my darling wife
You nursed me through illness, made me well
You rose above adversity in a private hell
A gentle nature and the heart of a lioness
Your elegant grace a beauty to confess
Apart we are formidable and able
Together we are absolutely unbeatable
Not just for Christmas but all our life
You are my soul-mate my darling wife
