

Tower building

Tower building

A place of good fortune
A home to we three
An escape from the sunshine
To relax and party

A tower of love and affection
A home to joy
Providing warmth and protection
To cherish and enjoy

A refuge from the wide world
A porcelain shell
Then latterly a place of escape
To shelter from the royal hell

A palace of fun
A table for fine dining
In which to hold court
And escape the rat run

A place of meeting
A simple 2 bed flat
For family and friends
To laugh and to chat

A place of recuperation
An unlikely gym
To recovery ones strength
An bring back vim

Anathema as a chapel of rest
A place of solitary worship
It served up hope along with the best
A sanctuary in every trip

A haven from anguish
A place for warm comfort
To hope and to wish
Steeped in memories yet to report
